

FULBRIGHT NON-DEGREE RESEARCH PROGRAM FOR DOCTORAL STUDENTS
COMPETITION FOR ACADEMIC YEAR 2017-2018 IS NOW OPEN

Application Deadline: JUNE 2, 2017

The Embassy of the United States of America in Serbia is pleased to announce the Fulbright Non-degree Research Program for Doctoral Students competition for the 2017-2018 spring semester (starting in January 2018). The Fulbright Non-degree Research Program for Doctoral Students enables young professionals from Serbia who are already enrolled in a PhD program at a Serbian university to conduct research at a U.S. related to their PhD thesis. Grants last 6 to 9 months, and the PhD students from the following fields can apply:

Agriculture
American History
American Literature
American Studies
Anthropology
Archaeology
Biological Sciences
Chemistry
Communications
Computer Science

Economics
Education
Engineering
Environmental Sciences
Geography
Geology
Information Sciences
Journalism
Library Science

Linguistics
Mathematics
Philosophy
Physics/Astronomy
Political Science
Psychology
Social Work
Sociology
TEFL/Applied Linguistics

Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition. This prestigious award covers tuition and fees at a U.S. university, a monthly living stipend, health insurance, and international airfare.

Eligibility requirements:

- Applicants must be citizens of the Republic of Serbia. Permanent U.S. residents and persons with dual (Serbian and U.S.) citizenship are ineligible.
- Applicants must hold at least a Master's degree, and must be enrolled in a PhD program.
- Applicants must be proficient in oral and written English (selected candidates will take TOEFL test).
- Applicants must be eligible for a J-1 visa, which requires the grantee to return to the Republic of Serbia for a minimum of two years at the end of the grant period.
- Applicants already studying in the U.S. are ineligible for a Fulbright grant.
- Applicants must receive a satisfactory medical clearance.
- Persons desiring permanent residence in the United States are not eligible.

General Selection Criteria:

- Academic credentials.
- Significance and feasibility of the proposed research.
- Necessity to undertake the project in the U.S.
- Plans for popularizing the research findings.
- Adaptability and personal suitability.
- Applicants should be representative and responsible citizens who contribute to a full and fair picture of the culture and civilization of Serbia.
- Preference is given to applicants who have not had a prior opportunity for studying in the United States.

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, and sex.

Selection Procedures:

- Applications are subject to pre-screening
- Applicants recommended by reviewers are invited for an interview conducted in person in English by a selection committee comprised of the Embassy representatives, U.S. and Serbian scholars, and Fulbright alumni
- Nominees are subject to final approval by the Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board

How to apply:

Completed applications must include:

- Online application at <https://apply.embank.com/student/fulbright/international>;
- Three (3) Letters of Reference (can be submitted online by instructors, professors or work supervisors, or sent via e-mail to the U.S. Embassy);
- Academic transcripts/diplomas (certified translation into English or verified copies of original academic transcript and degree certificate – scanned and attached to the application);
- Official English translation of certificate for the current academic status (scanned and attached to the application);
- Valid results from the U.S. standardized test – TOEFL – if the applicant has taken this test in the past two years. Please note that we shall organize taking of the required tests for the selected candidates;
- Copy of passport.

Please scan all the above mentioned documents and upload to your online application. Please note that all items should be translated into English.

Nominated candidates will have to submit a copy of the original academic transcript bearing all official legalization stamps to the U.S. Embassy Belgrade. The U.S. Embassy will advise the nominated candidates to submit a medical history and examination report if and when necessary.

Application Deadline: June 2, 2017

Any application submitted to the United States or elsewhere, separate from the official U.S. Embassy embark system noted above, will not be considered.

For additional information about the Fulbright Scholarship:

Email: BelgradeFulbright@state.gov

Website: <http://serbia.usembassy.gov>