

Dear University of Niš ,

Stockholm School of Economics in Riga is hosting one of the largest trading competitions in the World.

Students have a chance to win up to 2000 EUR trading stocks, ETFs, forex, and many others in a demo environment.

The SSE Riga Investment Game is a finance competition for high-school and university students from all over the world. The competition challenges contestants to show their skills in short-term trading on the stock market and using complex financial instruments. The competitors are allowed to make use of all available instruments, including short-selling of CFDs. Participants can use stocks, ETFs, forex, futures, stock CFDs, commodity CFDs, oil and other commodity futures.

The SSE Riga Investment Game provides an opportunity to win valuable prizes amounting to EUR 2000 and adds a notable entry in your CV for a fast-track career in finance.
